Time to launch your soft adventures in Downtown Titusville

Date visited		Soft Adventures	A brief description. Please visit the website for details.
		North Brevard Historical Museum	In 1966 local residents formed the Historical Society of North Brevard. They collected a wide variety of historical artifacts, photographs and written records and display them in this museum. Displays range from the original casts of the Mercury astronaut handprints to wedding dresses.
		The Historic Pritchard House	The Pritchard House is a fine example of Queen Anne architecture; built for Captain James Pritchard in 1891. The authentically restored house is completely furnished with period furniture, accessories and interesting collections.
		U.S. Space Walk of Fame Museum	Space suites, flight manuals, flown-in-space gear, ground support equipment, to-scale rocket models and lots of personal memorabilia donated by former space workers. Veterans of the space program serve as knowledgeable guides.
		Space View Walk and Park	The only Walk in the nation honoring America's astronauts as well as the men and women behind the scenes who helped America lead the world in space exploration. It features monuments to the Mercury, Gemini, Apollo and Shuttle programs.
		Veteran's Memorial Park	This memorial, dedicated to "All Veterans of All Wars," consists of Memorials to our nation's major conflicts from the American Revolution through Desert Storm. On the waterfront is our circle of flags: Old Glory surrounded by the service flags.
		Titusville History Walking Tour	The story of Historic Titusville is told on descriptive panels located along public walkways. Each panel reveals a specific historic site and features period images. Discover the Titusville of yesteryear. Click for a printable map.
		Titusville Historic Building Tour	A walking tour of the historic downtown commercial district. Twenty-four historic buildings on South Washington Ave. and Main St., Titusville are in a National Register of Historic Places. Click for printable map and 1990's descriptions.
		Titusville Playhouse	Home to nine main stage theatrical productions annually. Emma's Attic: thought provoking and intimate shows. TPI Kids: Classes and productions for kids in elementary and high school. Many community events take place here.
